The Matrix Revolutions

What to Know

Critics Consensus

A disappointing conclusion to the Matrix trilogy as characters and ideas take a back seat to the special effects

I've watched this Trilogy a number of times. Love the story and characters, but this one let me down a
The script was not as good and the special effects were good not great.
Think they should have spent more time developing the script and less time doing whatever it was that the
But, at least it is 10 times better than Resurrections. That one was absolutely horrible.

A lot of the negative reviews under this film in rottentomatoes are clearly not reviewing this particular
I know many smart people who didn't understand the whole concept even after watching the trilogy more th
This movie explains the Matrix in much more detail - how and why things are the way they are in the Matrix
Once you watch all three movies (intentionally skipping Resurrections) - you'll see it for what it really is - ge
